

The 4th Eungabi Graduates Artwork Exhibition was held by the Horticultural Department from June 10th to 12th.

The 4th Eungabi (silverlight seashell) Graduates Artwork Exhibition

Preview NEWS

○ The 4th Eungabi (silverlight seashell) Graduates Artwork Exhibition was held by the Horticultural Department from June 10th to 12th.

○ Global Conversation

The 4th Eungabi (silverlight seashell) Graduates Artwork Exhibition was held by the Horticultural Department from June 10th to 12th. President Um Chagyun, other college staff, faculty members and the department's alumni visited and enjoyed it very much. In particular, the floral art works were greatly appreciated by members of the local horticultural industry and middle and high school students who attended.

32 pieces of the students' individual works and 8 pieces of group designs were displayed throughout the event. In addition, an assortment of floral decorations were exhibited in various forms such as: hanging designs, spacial arrangements, table displays, overhead exhibits, handmade floral works, as well as floral jewelry and other crafts. All the works were made by using the common materials around us and giving specialists' touch on them.

And for the first time there were garden designs on view: Decorum, Grennarae, Friendly Resort Village, Lifelong Lake Park, The Five Senses and Eco N University. With Namhae as the main theme each work was based on local traits.

Professor Daegon Kwon, head of the department mentioned that he hopes that the annual exhibition organised by the department's staff and faculty members will be for the benefit of all the local residents. He went on to say that he wants people to come and enjoy the "fruits" of the students' labor.

The Department of Horticulture will soon be called The Landscaping Design Department. Under its new name, the department will develop the knowledge of its faculty members, introduce cutting edge laboratories with the goal of fostering specialists in landscape design and management, florists and spacial designers.

Global Conversation

Owain : Jane, is it your birthday this weekend?

Jane : Yeah, it's this Saturday, the 28th.

Owain : Are you doing anything to celebrate? How about going to the music festival at Jinhae? I can get you a ticket if you want.

Jane : Really? That sounds great! What time does it start?

Owain : It starts at 4 and ends probably around 7:30. How about going to the Vienna Cafe for some cake and coffee after the concert?

Jane : That's a fabulous idea! I can't wait to go.

